

King and His Favorite Toy

an original story

King and His Favorite Toy

An Original Story

Written by Jan Stewart

Illustrated by Moira Clark

Series Leamos

King was a three-year-old boy who really liked playing with his toys in his room.

Every day, he would sit on his floor and play with all his toys.

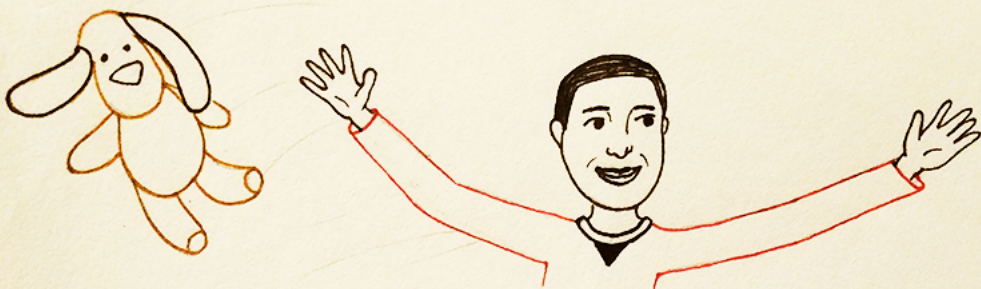

King had a favorite toy. It was a stuffed dog that he called Puff.

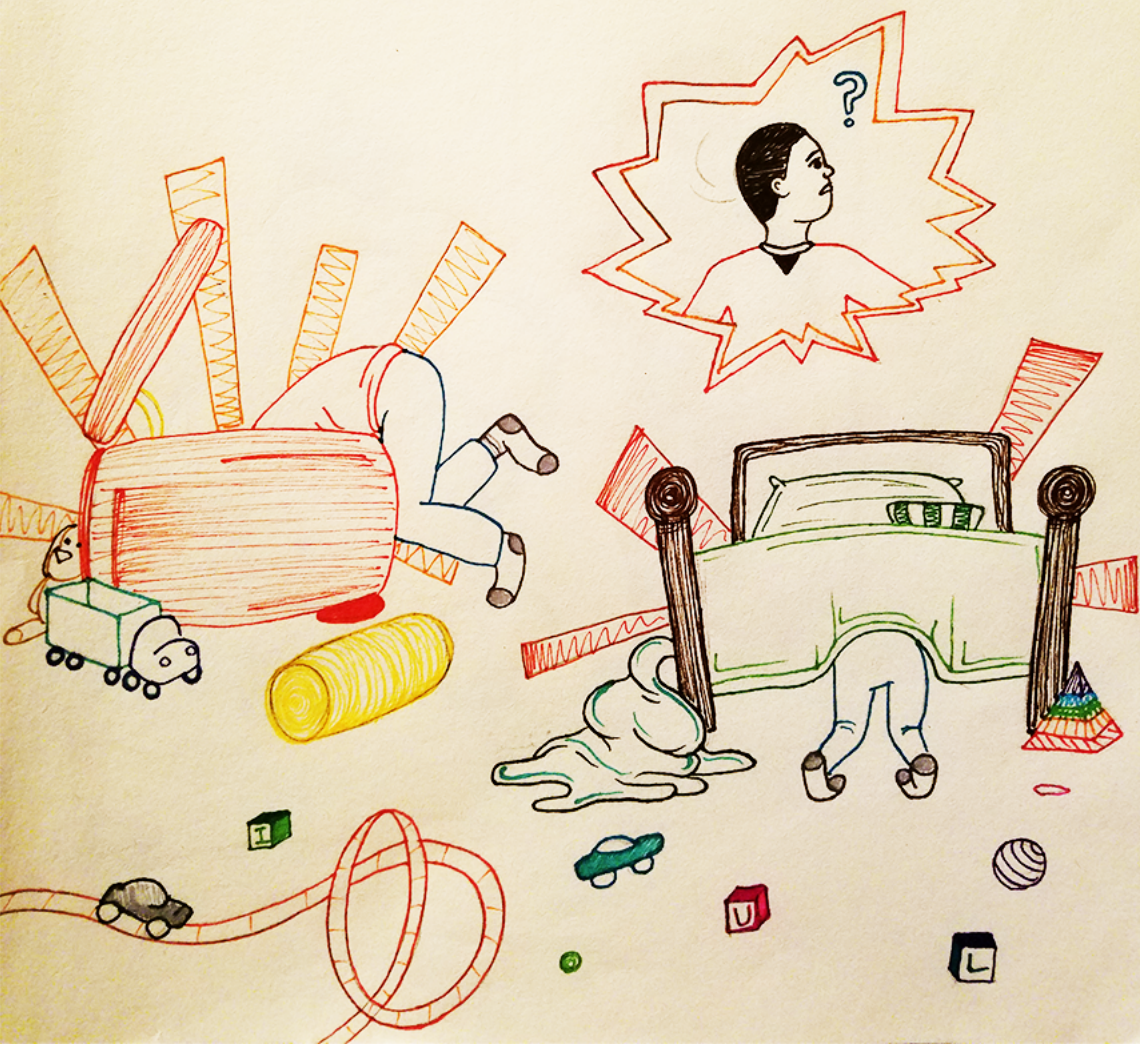

King always carried Puff with him everywhere he went.

One day, while he was playing,

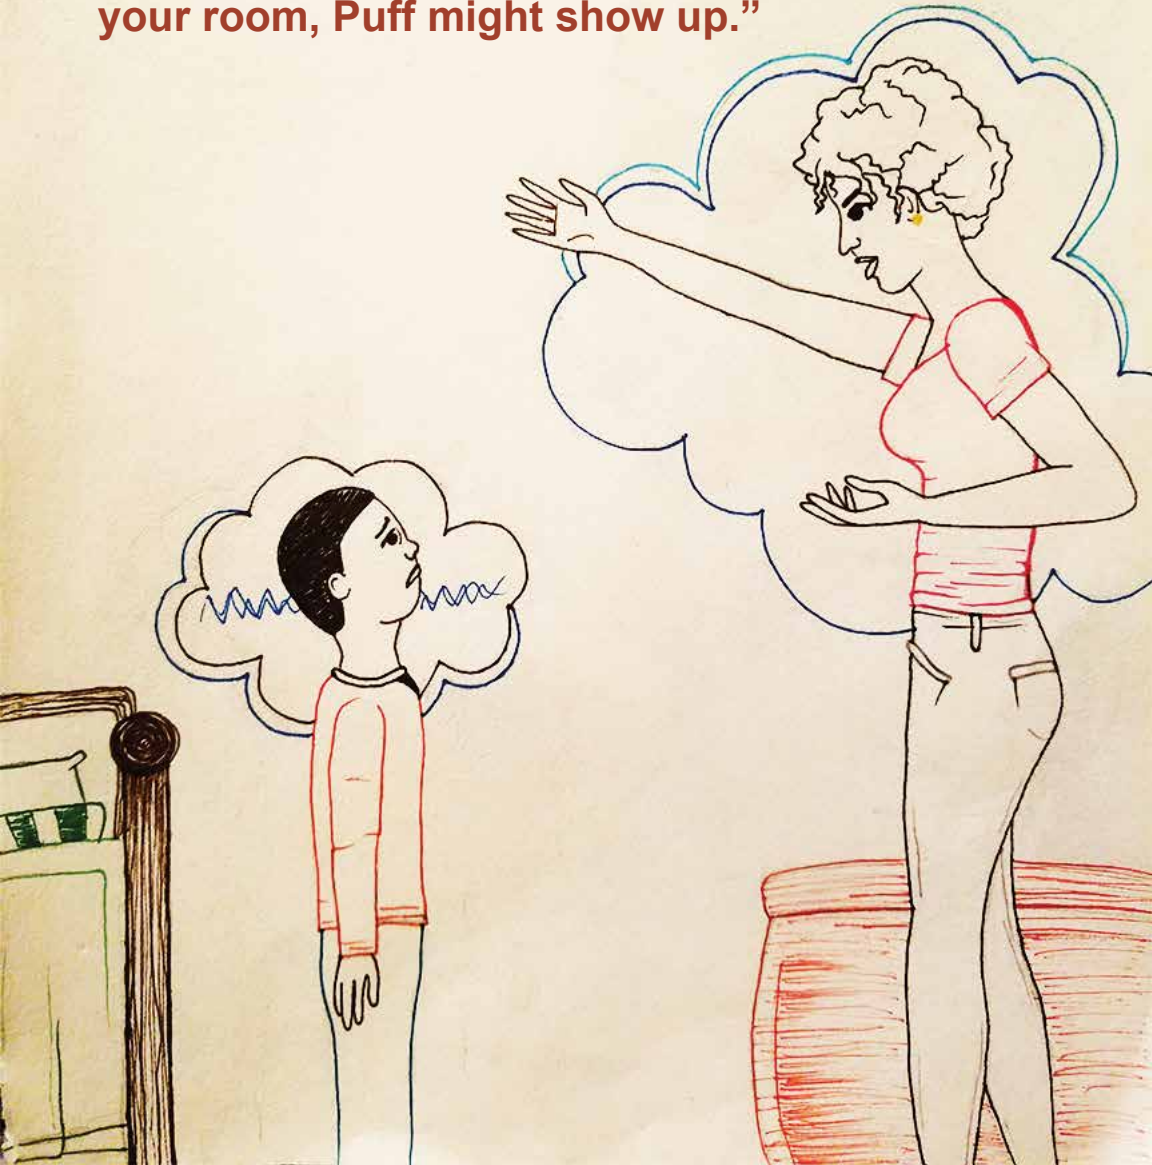

King realized that he couldn't find his dog.

“Mama!” yelled King, “Puff left the house!”

“Well,” said his mother, “perhaps if you clean your room, Puff might show up.”

Then, King cleaned his room.

He had to pick up all his toys and put them in the toy chest.

While he was cleaning, King found Puff under his bed.

“Here you are, my friend!” yelled King.

“You’re back!”

“I’ve missed you a lot, and I promise you that I’m always going to clean my room if you promise me that you won’t leave me again!”

Since that day, King has always kept his room clean.

